Pray like Priests!

Fr. Steve Biegler
(steve.biegler@olbh.org)

In Advent we will begin praying with a new translation of the Mass. This is an opportunity to deepen our experience of the Eucharist. Over the next few months, I will write about the changes as well as the "principles" behind the changes. One of those principles is that all people are supposed to pray like priests! What do I mean?

Perhaps you have heard that with the Second Vatican Council there was a strong desire to promote greater involvement of the people at Mass. The introduction to the missal states that the celebration of the Eucharist should be conducted so that it leads to . . .

"a conscious, active and full participation of the faithful, namely in body and mind, a participation fervent with faith, hope, and charity . . . to which the Christian people have a right and duty in virtue of their Baptism."

You have a "right and duty" to full participation because of your Baptism. Why? In 1 Peter 2:5 it says, "let yourselves be built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ." Peter urges Christians to offer their lives to God as a spiritual sacrifice. Some people describe this as the "common priesthood" of all the baptized.

In other words, it is not only the ordained priest who offers the sacrifice of the Mass. Rather, the prayers of everyone at Mass are meant to be a spiritual sacrifice offered to God.

When we have a sense of how much God has done for us, then we respond by saying thanks. Our first "offering" to God is one of thanksgiving. Sometimes I have said, with irony, that you have permission to miss Mass when you can get up on Sunday morning and say to yourself, "Well there is nothing to thank God for this week, so I am skipping Mass."

Once we understand that all of life is a gift from God, we begin to live with constant gratitude. We begin to offer everything back to God. The Mass is the greatest prayer of thanks.

At Mass that offering of praise and thanksgiving often is expressed in songs. Think of how we simply praise God for all his works in the Gloria or the Psalm. Everyone is expected to sing these prayers so that together we can thank God for such amazing gifts.

How often have you come to Mass and said to yourself, "Now I am going to offer everything in my life to God."? My children are such a gift so I praise Him. Yet, caring for my children requires so much patience, and I ask the Lord for the grace to show them the patience that I have learned from God. Even though I cannot understand my suffering with arthritis or cancer, I will still offer it to God because I know that he can work through me as I suffer. The homework that I have to do can be so boring, but everything I do expresses how he has created me so I offer it to God.

Pray like priests! Peace, Fr. Steve

Naming of the "Old Rectory"

Before Fr. Mark left for Ft. Pierre, we were in the process of naming the old rectory. Due to his transfer, he decided to wait and let Fr. Steve decide on what to do. Fr. Steve would like to go with our original suggestions and take it to a vote by the parishioners. We will have an in pew election on October 1 & 2 at all of the Masses. Please prayerfully consider the following names for our "Old Rectory"

•Fellowship House •Our Lady's Place •Shepherd's House •St. Joseph's Hall •Trinity Hall

Leadership Night

Leadership Night will begin again on Monday, September 19th, at 6:00 pm. All members are needed at this new year kick off; please make every effort to attend. We will be having Pizza; please RSVP to your Pastoral Council representative so we know how much pizza to order.

Anointing of the Sick

At the weekend Masses of October 1-2 the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick will be celebrated. Who may receive this Sacrament? The ritual states that it is for "the faithful whose health is seriously impaired by sickness or old age... Elderly people may be anointed if they have become notably weakened even though no serious illness is present." The sacrament may be received before surgery, by those suffering with mental illness, and by sick children who are seven years or older.

Learn about the Mass

Beginning September 17-18, Fr. Steve will offer a short teaching 15 minutes before the weekend Masses. He will speak about one aspect of the Eucharist and the new translation of the Roman Missal. If you are interested, come to Mass a little early.

Sing & Learn Our New Mass Settings

After reviewing two new Mass settings that the musicians of the diocese recommended, Bishop Gruss selected the "Mass of Renewal", published by OCP. As this will be the setting used for the Chrism Mass in March, the hope is that the diocese will have learned a common Mass setting. OLBH is excited to share in the liturgical life of the diocese, beginning September 17 & 18, teaching and learning the new Mass setting before all weekend Masses.

Listen to our New Mass Setting – You can listen to the Mass of Renewal, by Curtis Stephan, on YouTube or go to <http://www.ocp.org/newmasssettings/newsettings/massofrenewal>, to listen to or purchase a CD or MP3.

Praying with the Bible

Would you like to learn how to pray with Bible? The Lumko Method of praying with the Bible in small groups includes a prayerful listening to the Sacred Scriptures, periods of silence and hearing how others encounter God. Join Fr. Steve for a simple way of praying with the Bible, 4:30 – 5:30 PM Tuesdays beginning Sept. 13th at the old rectory.

First Reconciliation & First Communion

In October, we will begin preparation for the Sacraments of First Reconciliation and First Communion. Any parent who has a child in the 2nd grade and/or 7 years old or older and has not yet received First Reconciliation or First Communion are welcome to join us for sacramental preparation. If your child is ready to begin his/her journey together with a parent, please fill out the faith formation form in the gathering area and mark the appropriate fields. If you have any questions, please contact Jenny Scherr @ 787-5168.

We Need Your Help!

We are encouraging volunteers to sign up & help for a minimum of one night a semester. Please sign up at the faith formation registration table located in the gathering area.

Humanae Vitae indicates the strong links between life ethics and social ethics, ushering in a new area of magisterial teaching that has gradually been articulated in a series of documents, most recently John Paul II's Encyclical Evangelium Vitae. The Church forcefully maintains this link between life ethics and social ethics, fully aware that "a society lacks solid foundations when, on the one hand, it asserts values such as the dignity of the person, justice and peace, but then, on the other hand, radically acts to the contrary by allowing or tolerating a variety of ways in which human life is devalued and violated, especially where it is weak or marginalized."

For the Ride Home

~ By Ted Bergh

Scripture

- ❖ For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD (Isaiah 55:6)
- ❖ The LORD is near to all who call upon him, (Psalm 245:18)
- ❖ For to me life is Christ, and death is gain. (Philippians 1:21)
- ❖ Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last." (Matthew 20:16)
- ❖ Seek the LORD while he may be found, call him while he is near. (Isaiah 55:9)

Reflection

- ❖ Is your goal in seeking God to find what you expect to find?
- ❖ Why do you seek Jesus? What are you looking for?
- ❖ How may death be "gain?" Where is your journey taking you?
- ❖ When is God near? How do you "call upon" God

"O God," I said, and that was all. But what are the prayers of the whole universe more than an expansion of that one cry? It is not what God can give us, but God that we want. (George MacDonald)¹
